Compugen Honoured in 2010 HP Americas Partner Conference Partner Recognition Awards

Toronto, Ontario, April 28, 2010 – Compugen today announced that it has been recognized as the winner of the prestigious Partner in Excellence Award for Personal Systems Group Growth in Canada during the 2010 HP Americas Partner Conference Partner Recognition Awards ceremony in Las Vegas.

Selected by a panel of executives from the HP Solution Partners Organization, the awards were given to 19 HP partners who exhibited substantial wins in the marketplace and demonstrated outstanding performance in the delivery of HP products and solutions, as well as partners who exhibited innovative philanthropic practices and embraced HP's key corporate objectives of global citizenship and social responsibility.

The HP Partner in Excellence Award for PSG Growth honours Compugen for its superior merits in the Canadian region.

"Compugen has been working with HP for over 25 years to deliver innovative solutions to Canadian business," said Harry Zarek, president and CEO of Compugen. "Our customers value this collaboration that gives them excellent technology from HP and customized solutions from Compugen."

"The winners of HP's Partner Recognition Awards represent the best our partners have to offer in each business unit and region, whether that's through sales leadership and marketplace differentiation, or by demonstrating global citizenship in giving back to the community," said Stephen DiFranco, vice president and general manager, HP Solution Partners Organization Americas. "We thank all our partners for their contributions and congratulate our award-winning partners for their ongoing leadership."

"In Canada, HP and our partners work together to satisfy customers, deliver new value and generate more revenue through efficiency and flexibility," said Charles Salameh, vice president and general manager, Personal Systems Group, HP Canada. "The recipients of the Recognition Awards all embody these principles and we'd like to thank them for their outstanding contributions."
